FR. LINUS UMOREN, C.M.

A Reflection for the Twenty-Ninth Sunday of Ordinary Time in Year A

A Jewish rabbi and a Catholic priest were good friends. They were at a community picnic one day and the priest was eating a ham sandwich. "You know," he said to his friend, "this ham sandwich is simply delicious. I know you're not supposed to eat ham, but I don't understand why something as good as this would be forbidden to you. Why don't you break down and try one?" To which the rabbi replied, "Sure, at your wedding."

One thing we know about the Pharisees is that they were good at their Job. They knew rhetoric and the Hebrew scripture very well. So, when they confronted anybody, they brought rhetoric and the knowledge of scripture into a robust conversation. In the gospel of this weekend, we read about the double-edged question they pose to Jesus Christ. As Mathew records it, their intention was to entrap Jesus. So, they asked him, "Is it lawful to pay taxes to Caesar or not?" (Matthew 22:17b NAB). However, they do not say under whose law the act should be judged, the imperial law or God's law. Of course, this leaves Jesus in a dilemma. Consequently, He must navigate through the trap without shying away from his true identity and teaching.

The real question here is not about taxes. The Jews knew that it was okay to pay taxes and they had always paid taxes. Therefore, the tax in question here was the imperial tax paid as a tribute to Rome to support the Roman occupation of Israel. But Jesus is aware of their intention. So, instead of dividing Rome, his ministry, and God, Jesus turned the table upside down and fit in the duties we all owe to the emperor or state. However, he quickly adds a dimension that links everything to God: "Give to God the things that are of God."

Although, we are to give to our government what is their due as an expression of the greater participation in the divine ordering of the world, what is specifically due to God is not to be confused here. While our relationship with the government authority differs from the first-century Jews, there is at least one way in which we are similar: we cannot flee from participation in the government of our time. There are times when Christians must cooperate with the state, and there are times they must resist because of what they hold as a value. But navigating through that goes beyond common sense. Therefore, wisdom, the word of God, and the fear of God must guide our judgment not once and for all but always. It is not about divided loyalties but hearing and seeing God speaking and guiding amidst changing political climates. Some people would argue here that it would have been good if Jesus had given us more explicit instructions on our relationship with the government, but it seems the ambiguous nature of his words reflects the ambiguity of our lives and invites us to actions that are both judicious and moral.

God is good all the time; all the time God is good!

DIOCESAN INFORMATION

RESPECT LIFE CORNER

“I would now like to say a special word to women who have had an abortion. The Church is aware of the many factors which may have influenced your decision, and she does not doubt that in many cases it was a painful and even shattering decision. The wound in your heart may not yet have healed. ...But do not give in to discouragement and do not lose hope. ...The Father of mercies is ready to give you his forgiveness and his peace in the Sacrament of Reconciliation.”

DIOCESE OF BELLEVILLE -- PROJECT RACHEL

Project Rachel is an active ministry in the Diocese of Belleville!!! Planned Parenthood continues to see women (some report one woman every 20 minutes six days a week). It is so vital that we be there for these women to offer free and confidential help in their time of need. It is our hope to continue to foster a sense of compassion in our communities making them a safe place to welcome those who suffer after an abortion and encourage reconciliation and healing in Jesus Christ. Those in need of help and counseling can confidentially contact someone by phone or email. “My call to religious life began with a construction project at my college dorm. As jackhammers rang outside, I sought refuge in the chapel and at campus ministry events. My faith began to flourish and during those years I providentially met a De La Salle Christian brother who opened up new opportunities for community and service. My Catholic education...played a significant role in my discernment. I similarly attribute my vocation in large part to my family, who have always encouraged me to be faithful to God and a disciple of Christ. My advice to anyone discerning is to remain true to yourself and God. Dedicate yourself to growing in faith, service, justice, hope and love.”

Sister Joan Weiler, ASC - 60 Faithful Years of Service

After celebrating first vows in 1963, the call of discipleship led me to classrooms in IL, MO, and Puerto Rico. In most of these places I also provided music in the parishes. The conscious, active participation of the People of God singing God's praises always delights my heart. In leaving each of these places, I knew I left behind a trail of musical notes. While living in San Antonio, I continued my music ministry, while working as a DRE, or serving as a deanery consultant for the Archdiocese. Returning to IL, I ministered in pastoral care for two hospitals, and as a substitute organist in a non-Catholic church. I am grateful to be with you today to celebrate my 60th anniversary as an Adorer of the Blood of Christ.

Blessings,
Sr. Joan

Sister Angela Laquet, ASC - 25 Faithful Years of Service

I entered the ASC Congregation as a candidate in 1994. I became a novice in 1996 and made my first profession of vows on July 25, 1998. My primary ministry has been Occupational Therapist, working at St. Elizabeth's hospital in Belleville, Illinois, St. John's Mercy Hospital, Springfield, Missouri, Memorial Home Services (formerly St. Vincent Home Care) in Taylorville, Illinois. I have served on the Catholic Committee for Scouting in Springfield, Illinois, as well as the Vocation Committee for the Springfield Illinois Diocese. Currently, I am serving on the leadership team for the US Region of the Adorers of the Blood of Christ and I am on the Belleville TEC Board.

Blessings,
Sr. Angela

Continuation of Laudate Deum by Pope Francis

4. The reflection and information that we can gather from these past eight years allow us to clarify and complete what we were able to state some time ago. For this reason, and because the situation is now even more pressing, I have wished to share these pages with you.

1. The Global Climate Crisis

5. Despite all attempts to deny, conceal, gloss over or relativize the issue, the signs of climate change are here and increasingly evident. No one can ignore the fact that in recent years we have witnessed extreme weather phenomena, frequent periods of unusual heat, drought and other cries of protest on the part of the earth that are only a few palpable expressions of a silent disease that affects everyone. Admittedly, not every concrete catastrophe ought to be attributed to global climate change, Nonetheless, it is verifiable that specific climate changes provoked by humanity are notably heightening the probability of extreme phenomena that are increasingly frequent and intense. For this reason, we know that every time the global temperature increases by 0.5degrees C, the intensity and frequency of great rains and floods increase in some areas and severe droughts in others, extreme heat waves in some places and heavy snowfall in others. If up to now we could have heat waves several times a year, what will happen if the global temperatures increases by 1.5 degrees Celsius, which we are approaching? Those heat waves will be much more frequent and with greater intensity. If it should rise about 2 degrees, the icecaps of Greenland and a large part of Antarctica will melt completely with immensely grave consequences for everyone.
